

SWR WEEKLY

Striving for Excellence Together

The SWR Weekly will regularly keep you updated on news from the school. We hope you find this useful to keep in touch with what is going on at our wonderful school.

EGGTASTIC EGGTENDANCE

You will have seen in the national press that there continues to be concerns over school attendance since the COVID pandemic.

Attending school really does have an impact on students success at school and we should all be aiming for at least 98%.

We acknowledge there are times when students are genuinely unwell and they need to rest and recuperate. However, we also appreciate that at times students resilience drops when they are tired and feel like a 'duvet day'. If they have a particular concern that is stopping them coming into school, please contact us so that we can help.

Following the success of Attend 100 before Christmas, we are launching Eggastic Eggendance this week. Mrs Blake is currently sourcing the Cotswolds for the biggest Easter Egg she can find.

Every full week of attendance in the last three weeks of term - 1 Ticket.

100% Attendance until the end of term - 5 Tickets.

All students will win an egg if they have 100% attendance for the rest of term.

ARTISAN JACK

Congratulations to former SWR student, Jack Wallace, whose business 'Artisan Jack' has been shortlisted for a Countryside Alliance Award in the Southwest Butcher category.

These awards celebrate the very best that British food, farming, enterprise and small businesses has to offer in our area.

Jack is a traditionally trained butcher and curer who supports animal welfare and local trade. All of his produce is homemade or locally sourced, 100% free range and only comes from high-welfare farms and abattoirs.

The cost of the jacket is £24 and they can be ordered via ParentPay until March 6th.

If Year 11 wish to order a jacket we ask that they visit the office so that an order option can be added to ParentPay.
